

ISPCA Policy on Marine Mammals

Acknowledging that there is no humane method of killing whales, the ISPCA is opposed to the killing of whales for any purpose except to eliminate pain and suffering.

The ISPCA opposes, on both ethical and humane grounds, the harassment, capture or killing of marine mammals for commercial and sport purposes.