

ISPCA Policy on Pet Shops

The ISPCA advocates a system of licensing and inspection of pet shops.

The ISPCA opposes the offering for sale in pet shops, of native wild animals, or of exotic animals which are not adaptable to Irish climate or conditions or which have been caught in the wild.